

Hello this is Dr. Steven Lazarus. I'd like to tell you little bit about how I approach working with children and families. I think that my relationship with parents is extremely important. You are the expert on your child I am your partner to try to help you help your kids. Every kid is different and so my approach is to customize what we do together to help your kids go in the direction that we would like them to go. If you're interested in finding out a little bit more about my practice please don't hesitate to send me a contact information or to give me a call.
I look forward to talking with you.
